

GENERAL SCORES "CANTEEN" LAW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The anti-canteen law is severely criticized in the annual report of Major-General William L. B. Russell, commanding troops in the Philippines, who says that it is responsible for many of the officers which cause the soldiers' trouble by court-martial.

The desire of a very large percentage of the army for some sort of stimulants is a desire which such men are sure to gratify, says General Russell. This demand of the soldier previously was granted by the canteen without harm to himself or to the service, he says. But since the privilege of purchasing a mild beverage like beer under satisfactory conditions was withdrawn, General Russell desires that there have been no on the canteen of every recreation, disreputable places where many of the soldier's quality is lowered, many of the officers, from the direct effects of which the soldier comes in the form of officers which cause his trial by court-martial and even bring about his physical collapse.

PASSION PLAY PROFITS MORE THAN $300,000

BERLIN, Dec. 8.—Gross receipts from this year's Passion Play at Oberammergau are officially reported as $438,140. After defraying the costs of production and other incidental expenses $224,100 remains to be distributed, and $191,040 will be divided among 450 performers. The men and women who played so vividly as members of the crowds in the streets of Jerusalem will receive $30 each, and the school children $150 each. The poor will receive $2,000, and the balance, $199,740, will remain in the village treasury for communal purposes.

THE FUNNIEST PUZZLE. It won't be hard to solve, but you'll vote it the most entertaining content you ever entered. It will be in the Great City Life Section of the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

HUNT LINER FOR ETHEL LENEVE

If the immigration officers in the port of Boston are able to identify Miss Ethel Leneve, companion of Dr. Harry H. Crippen who was hanged in England for the murder of his wife, when the Zealand docks to-day it is probable that steps will be taken to have her from this country as an undesirable alien.

The authorities have been tipped off that the murderer's companion is on the Zealand, traveling under an assumed name. There is some doubt as to the identity of the report that Miss Leneve is on the Zealand, but officials say an absolutely careful examination of all the passengers will be made.

POLICE AFTER ALL SPITTERS

The police, under new orders from Commissioner Means, began today to enforce the anti-litigating law without discrimination as to sex, age, appearance or other consideration and without regard to whether the person was a Negro.

In last Sunday's issue of the SEVENTH AMERICAN attention was called to the fact that the Commissioner was illegally detaining a Negro high school senior for anti-litigating law. The order that three arrests should be made in each of the fifteen local divisions of the city was illegal. The Commissioner had ordered that three be detected in violating the law, and that they be arrested and given the same punishment. The provision to get three arrests was a violation of the law, and to afford a law was another discrimination.

That the Commissioner intends to enforce the law is a fact. He has said so otherwise. In the future, it is emphasized by the SEVENTH AMERICAN, the Commissioner should state last night. This action tells the Negro community that the law is being enforced in part of the city, it will be regarded as discriminating against the Negro community. The new general order reads:

Means's Order

"Beginning at 10:00 p. m. of August 6, the police will be expected to prosecute."

all persons who are seen by them to violate the law. As heretofore, prosecutions will be by summons rather than by immediate arrest in all cases in which such course may seem reasonable in view of the sex, age, condition or apparent responsibility of the offender. But arrest on the spot is authorized by the law and when the offender can thereby be taken directly to court. It is often the most humane way of securing the prosecution.

[illegible]

Fine of $200 Penalty.

"Sec. 2. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $200. Any person convicted of violating any provision of this act may be arrested by any officer authorized to serve criminal process in the place where the offense is committed or by a constable or sheriff or his deputy before a court which has jurisdiction of said offense, and if his name is unknown, he may be arrested without a warrant.

"Sec. 3. Any person who, especially in the presence of a crowd, intentionally divides commanders are to understand that the enforcement of this law is to be through the courts and the police department. It is the intention of the city will be to regained evidence of inattention to duty on the part of the police responsible therefor. Daily reports of prosecutions will be made to the superintendent as heretofore.

FRENCH AVIATOR SETS NEW AIR RECORD

MEMPHIS, Dec. 8.—Reus Barrier, Frenchman, established a world's record when he flew a distance in excess of six teen miles in 10 minutes 35.1-5 seconds, thereby winning a prize of $5,000 offered by the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Charles K. Hamilton is his flying instructor. He is a tall, blond, athletic man, with a death-kiss hair's breadth in performing spectacular feat of armanship. In an exhibition flight he had reached a height of 200 feet when his motor went dead. He started to glide, striking the earth with a thump, his machine a wreck, but his bones whole.

FANUEIL HALL FIGHT

COST HAMLIN $2,300

Charles S. Hamlin's unsuccessful fight for the Democratic nomination for Governor against Governor-elect Foss and James H. Valley cost him $2,300, and his campaign manager, Charles H. Cole, an additional $10, according to a statement filed at the Circuit Court.

HELEN TAFT
EXPLAINS SNUB

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—What has become of the invitation sent to members of the House of Representatives and their families for Miss Helen Taft's recent debut, is a problem puzzling the brightest detectives in the presidential household. They were not received by those to whom they were addressed and the result is a social snub at the White House.

It was well known at the White House that invitations had been sent to all the House families, and that some were expected to accept. A trace was sent out on the track of the invitations, and it was noted they had not been delivered by a special messenger, as in the case of those for the Senate and House families, having been forwarded through the postoffice. By some trick of the mails, those for the senators' families reached their destination, but those for House families had not been delivered, although the House is provided with two postoffices, one in the big office building and one at the Capitol.

Beyond the discovery that there were invitations for the House people and that they are said to have been sent from the White House, no definite information has been obtained.

The White House was not disturbed about the matter that it was found necessary to give out a formal statement explaining the matter as much as was possible with the facts at hand.

10 HURT IN NEW STREET CAR RIOT

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 8.—Eleven men were injured, eleven electric cars smashed and the windows of many houses smashed in the introduction of "the riotous" on the local streets. The riotous men, or several thousand strong, took and took on the principal business thoroughfares, demolishing every car that came within reach and completely stopping traffic.

The disorderly scene followed a mass meeting in Murray Hall. Two weeks ago the Toronto Street Railway installed pay-as-you-ride cars on the principal routes. Much dissatisfaction developed over the innovation. It was found that the cars were not adjusted to the needs of the city. Protesters in writing and by organized force and the board of control decided to hold a public mass meeting with the mayor could be dismissed. Representatives of the street railway were also invited to attend.

The meeting, however, resulted into a series of riotous demonstrations. The street car company, in turn, by the use of force, kept the cars running. The riotous men, in turn, by the use of force, kept the cars from running. A crowd of several hundred riotous men, after making the car company and after making the car company, were injured by being struck and killed. Riotous acts were made.

BOSTON AMERICAN

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, DECEMBER 8, 1910

The Battle for Board and Clothes—Help the People!

You are back in your places, gentlemen of the Sixty-first Congress—and once more the eyes of a suffering but hopeful country are focused upon the Capitol.

Last month the political fight of the masses for freedom to eat and to wear clothes spread its confusion across the continent.

Now the dust and smoke have blown away, and you have the wide field to yourselves.

Some of you have come up out of the ballot-battle with disfiguring scars and the mark of doom upon your faces.

But you are alive. You sit in the seats of power. And you all have another chance for redemption—if you can read the writing on the wall.

The writing is on the tariff wall. The people are many, and they want many things. But a thousand local disputes that went into the elections were only the flecks of foam on a great tidal surge of public indignation against a tariff that panders to privilege and raises the revenues of an extravagant government out of the food and clothes of the people.

The Revolution was fought to abolish a stamp act and a tea tax. Is it possible that you, gentlemen of the Senate and the House, do not understand the present indignation of the American people at the arbitrary taxation that is being wrung out of the necessities of their households?

You do the wringing—yes! The trusts get the money. Uncle Sam gets very little of it.

Now have you dared tax common cotton cloth from a cent to eight cents a yard? The tax yields next to nothing to the Treasury—since hardly a half-million dollars' worth is imported in a year.

It is a tax levied on plain people's shirts and petticoats—by you—no please monopolists.

The like is true of common woollen goods, and the staple food-stuffs.

You have, for a random example, laid on wheat flour a tax of 25 per cent—for the enrichment of the milling trust. The Government realized from this tax during the month of October just $313.50—minus the cost of collection!

You will have to stop this sort of thing, gentlemen.

Whether you are Democrats or Republicans, it won't do. The short session of Congress is long enough to reduce the shameful wool and cotton schedules to decent limits—and to wholly abolish every impact on the great food staples.

It is beyond question that the American speaks now for the American people in renewing its demand for free food. There should be no tariff tax on the contents of the dinner pail—whether full or half-full.

There should be no duty whatever on the wheat, corn and potatoes of the Canadian Northwest—or beef and mutton from Australia and Argentina.

Congress can easily cancel the food tax—and do it at once.

The agricultural States of the West do not protest. On the contrary, they are foremost in the demand that the necessities of life shall be released from the grip of the tariff.

There are other things to be done, gentlemen of the short session, but the cry for board and clothes is most imperative. It cannot be put behind other things, or set in the shadow of any excuse.

Scale down the wool and cotton schedules—and put foodstuffs on the free list.

The Population of Some of the Forty-six United States

Published at the Request of a Schoolboy—And Most Interesting

Here is a letter from a schoolboy:

Editor Boston American:—Dear Sir:—Will you kindly publish in the columns of the Boston American, which I read every day, the population of the different States, according to the last census? It will help me as well as others in our studies at school. Very much obliged, GEORGE E. LAWRENCE.

We publish below a partial answer to this boy's question. The answer interests all human beings individually with any imagination. Remember that where we had only thirteen States with a handful of people, we now have forty-six States with a population of about ninety millions.

These States have been carved out of the wilderness, the prairie, and the desert.

Great cities stand where the buffalo used to wallow. And public schools are built in spots where Indians used to torture one another and eat one another's flesh.

Truly the growth of this country has been marvellous. And gratefully the American may say: "He hath not dealt so with any nation; and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord." (Psalms, cxlviii, 20.)

Here are the figures of States in population as announced by the Census Bureau thus far. Other announcements will be made from day to day. New York State alone has more than double the population of the United States in Washington's day. These figures show populations for 1810, 1850 and 1890.
